NEWS OF SOCIETY.

THE ELUCIDATION LUNCHEON GIVEN BY MRS. PORTER

In Honor of Miss Neely and Miss Forepaugh. Other Events of Interest—Points About People You Know.

A luncheon in symbolizing all the beauty and grace of the East in holiday season was given yesterday, at 2 o'clock, by Mrs. J. H. Porter, in honor of the two charming visitors, Miss Daisy Neely, of Memphis, and Miss Forepaugh, Mrs. Porter, always a notably lovely and graceful hostess, excelled all her former efforts on this occasion, when her luncheon table, in its pure adornment of white flowers and crystal ornaments, looked as if arrayed for a royal feast.

In the center a crystal bowl, filled with tropical fruits, rested upon a round mirror, and at either end two cut-glass bowls held stalks of pure Easter lilies; and there were, besides, many of the exquisite cut-glass ornaments.

Instead of the conventional cut-glass candelabra, the table was illuminated by white waxen tapers in single candlesticks, and the delicate white shawls to these were covered with tiny English marguerites. These candles were arrayed in a charmingly artistic manner up and down the center of the table. Many tall urns and gold candlesticks held the white tapers, and on the outer edge, just beyond the plates and wine glasses, a delicate tracing of smilax, twined about the candlesticks six inches apart, and each holding in the smilax one perfect white rosebud. The favors were dainty in design, each one having upon it a different scene or flower in water colors. The whole effect of the table was dazzling in its brilliancy when the folding doors slid apart, and disclosed it to the seventeen fair guests to whom was served exquisitely an elaborate and delicious menu.

Those present were: Miss Neely, of Memphis, and Miss Forepaugh, of Atlanta; Mrs. Porter, Mrs. Weiborn Hill, Mrs. Iverson, Miss Franklin, VanDyke, of Chattanooga; Virginia Arnold, Julia Lowry Clarke, Mrs. Ella Keid, Annie Inman, Joan Clarke, March, Kathleen Jones, Grant, Addie Maude, Susie Harwood, Mrs. Porter.

The Funston Memorial Society, of St. Philip's church, had its first meeting yesterday afternoon at Mrs. Harwood's, on Peachtree street. Many ladies were present, and plans were made for the much of the good work the society proposes to accomplish. The organization is entirely for doing charitable work, and the desire of its members is to make worthy the name of their beloved pastor, and so more.

It was decided to have a bazaar the second week in May, and Mrs. Harwood has offered her hands home for this purpose. It will be a delightful affair, and many of the belles and beauties of the city will take charge of booths and tables for charity's sake.

The society will meet Thursday afternoon at Mrs. Flanders, 30 Forsyth street, and the ladies request that all the members, and all those interested in the good work, will attend.

A delightful progressive Salmagundi party was given last evening by Mr. Marion Jackson, at his home on Capitol square, to his friend, Mr. Pascal, of Washington, D. C. Handsome prizes were awarded to the winners, delicious refreshments were heartily served, and the evening was an absolutely perfect one to the young folks present. They were: Misses Lucy Peel, Willie Peck, Katie Stocking, Carrie Johnson, Avis Bats, Bessie Fitter, Annie Harwood, Mabel Meador, Messrs. Turner, Fitter, Can Martin, Jim Dicky, Otis Smith, Paton Douglass, Jim Meador, Willie McBride.

The Ladies' Alter Society of the Church of the Immaculate Conception will conduct a parlor bazaar at the residence of Mrs. John J. Lynch, No. 40 Courtland street, on Tuesday night, at 8 o'clock, and the morning and will remain open during the day and evening. Luncheon will be served at any time during the day, and regular meals may be had during the dinner and supper hours. A large number of very handsome and useful articles have been donated, all of which, it is hoped, will have been disposed of before the hour for closing Tuesday evening. The location is central and the public generally is invited to visit the bazaar.

Mrs. Chan Jones's afternoon reception Tuesday in February and March were largely attended by her friends, and were universally pronounced very delightful entertainments.

Mrs. Jones as a hostess possesses that grace and ease of manner that always makes her guests feel welcome. Her lovely daughter and cousin, Miss Strong, who was so popular during her recent visit, were assisted each afternoon by two young society ladies of the city, and evening entertainments being invited to assist in serving light refreshments.

Mr. P. F. Matthews, of Barnesville, Ga., and Miss Clara Watkins, of this city, were married yesterday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the home of the bride, on East Fair street. The ceremony was impressively performed by Rev. R. S. Barrett, in the presence of the relatives. The bride is well known in this city, and her many friends will wish for her long life and happiness. The groom is one of the most highly respected and influential citizens of Barnesville, and many kind wishes will be extended to him and his bride. Immediately after the ceremony the bride left for their home in Barnesville, where they will give an elegant reception last evening at the home of the groom.

The G. R. P. Club will give their last dance this evening at the residence of Mrs. J. J. Barnes, 245 Whitehall. The dances of this club are always events of great interest to the members and others so fortunate as to be present.

THE USUAL GRIEF.

Work of the Courts, Civil and Criminal, Yesterday.

There was not much done in the courts yesterday.

Judge W. L. Calhoun is still busy filling out pension blanks for widows of confederate soldiers.

The papers were forwarded to Milledgeville making application for the admission of Mrs. Mary Blankenship into the asylum. She is still in jail.

Monter Curry, a very violent lunatic, was tried and adjudged insane. He will be sent to Milledgeville as soon as possible.

In superior court, Judge Richard H. Clark sentenced Henry Doherty twelve months in the chain-gang for burglary.

Joseph Gardner was given one year in the penitentiary for breaking and entering.

Pinckney Barrow was sent to the penitentiary for twelve months for assault with intent to murder.

BASEBALL TODAY.

A Game Will Be Played at Grant Park This Afternoon.

The Atlanta club had a good crowd out yesterday afternoon for practice, and some pretty work was done. The boys show a marked improvement in their playing, and are anxious for the league season to open up.

There will be a game at Grant park this afternoon between the Atlanta and McPhersons, when the following men will appear on the two teams.

Positions. McPhersons. Lagomarsino.....Catcher.....Cornell. Lester.....Pitcher.....Gibson. Lilly.....First base.....Roach. Marshall.....Second base.....Greenhouse. Glenn.....Third base.....Leary. Lavale.....Short stop.....Robinson. Copeedge.....Left field.....Welch. Blackwood.....Right field.....Bent.

Game will be called at 2:30 o'clock.

THE MAY FESTIVAL.

It Will Be Held on the First Day of May if the Weather Permits.

The committee appointed to arrange for a May festival for the children of Atlanta met in the parlors of the Young Men's library yesterday afternoon.

Colonel W. M. Bray presided at the meeting, which was attended by a number of members of the board of education, teachers and citizens, both ladies and gentlemen.

There was a good deal of discussion over the selection of the day for the festival. By some of the teachers it was urged that it should take the place of the last day of school, June 5th, relieving the children of the tedious exercises on that day.

But the original idea was adhered to, and May 1st was the day. If the weather is inclement on that day, the festival will be held the following Friday.

Upon the selection of the day, other features of the festival were discussed, including the manner of selecting the May queen and her maids of honor.

These it was decided should be chosen from among the children of Atlanta at large, without regard to any or all of the schools.

Chairman Bray was authorized to appoint a committee of six ladies and four gentlemen to nominate the queen and her maids of honor. Committees on selection of place and programme will also be announced by the chairman as soon as possible.

It is probable that the festival will be held either at Piedmont park or Grant park.

Y. M. C. A. RECEPTION.

The Ladies' Auxiliary Has Arranged One for Atlanta's Young Men.

This evening from 7 to 11 o'clock, in the Young Men's Christian Association building, the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Young Men's Christian Association will give a reception to the young men of Atlanta.

The different committees yesterday were actively at work decorating the spacious parlors and reading rooms and as rapidly as possible entering the large hall into a banquetting room.

There will be a wealth of floral decoration, and many beautiful articles have been loaned which to ornament and add to the beauty of the rooms.

Refreshments in daintiest form will be served. Wm. W. W. orchestra will discourse sweet music, while the Ladies' Auxiliary, composed of about 200 of Atlanta's leading women, assisted by some of the fairest and brightest young women of our city, will delightfully entertain the guests of the evening.

It is especially requested that all the members of the Young Men's Christian Association be present, and write their gentlemen friends to come with them. Every young man in the city is cordially invited to be present. The members of the Ladies' Auxiliary, it is hoped, will be out in force.

A DISTINGUISHED WOMAN.

Mrs. Mary T. Lathrop to Speak at the Opera House Sunday.

Mrs. Mary T. Lathrop, of Michigan, vice president of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union, will be in Atlanta next Sunday.

On Sunday afternoon she will deliver a free lecture at the opera house. Her subject will be temperance work. She did not take into account the value of the stock feed raised on the farm because it was about balanced by the value of the meat.

The figures in this morning's issue were incorrect, charging as they do, the farm products of 1890 (during which year they were consumed) instead of those of 1891.

The correct figures, after careful examination, I find to be as follows:

The cost of stock feed purchased during the year 1890.....$ 3,412 22
Value of stock feed produced on farm (as per report 1890).....436 58
Total.....$ 3,752 80

Deduct 5,242 pounds pork at 6c.....$314 52
Deduct 2,242 pounds of sacks.....25 00—340 20
Total.....$ 3,412 60
Deduct 1,125 at $3.30 a head per head of $11.25.....$375 00
Total.....$ 3,037 60
Commissioner Public Works.

A Card From Mr. Frazier.

EDITOR CONSTITUTION: The account in yesterday morning's CONSTITUTION of the distribution of the city's patronage in purchasing stock feed, leaves the inference that an excess is shown in two departments because they have bought almost exclusively from me, and that favoritism is shown to myself at the expense of the dealers.

Now, if a full and fair investigation is made into this matter, it will be found that my prices are lower than was offered by others. My bids on feed are on file with the city, and can be compared with others, and my books are open to inspection by any authorized committee, as to the market price for goods on the dates that the city bought. I can name several large institutions in the city who feed more stock than all of the city department combined, and bought nearly all of their supplies from me, the fact being that lower prices for a good article than can be had elsewhere is a bid for favoritism that generally gets it. Respectfully, J. D. FRAZIER.

A Complaint.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 2.—Editor Constitution: Can nothing be done for the West End people? Is it impossible for us to have some kind of transit system from the Whitehall street crossing to the city? We have at present two systems, the street car and the Central railroad accommodation. The first you get on and get to town in half an hour, that is, if on time and no breakdowns; the second, you often find it impossible to get on at all, and it is right here that I want to say, is the cause of my writing this letter to you. Night before last, there were three gentlemen standing at the crossing, waiting for the train which was at West End station. The train how in sight and was flagged down. The engineer saw the men and started on to stop, but just as he was about to stop, he opened the throttle and she came by like a rocket, and the gentlemen were left standing there in the rain and mud. And yet this is a regular station at which the hour train is advertised to stop regularly. Something should be done. This is not the first time it has happened, as it has of late gotten to be a common occurrence. WHITEHALL.

THE BRIDGE COMMITTEE TO MEET TODAY.

And the Property Owners Along Forsyth Street to Be in Attendance—The Police Committee.

The Forsyth street bridge will be designed today.

And final arrangements for building that important passway between north and south Atlanta will be made.

The bridge committee will meet in the mayor's office, and the property owners on Forsyth street from Marietta to Alabama street will be present.

The conference will be to arrange the final details.

For some time past Mr. Turner, Mr. Rice and Mr. McBride, members of the bridge committee, have been working with the gentlemen who own the property along the street on both sides of the railroad. Nearly every one has given his consent to the work, and the meeting this afternoon is to secure a final adjustment. Mr. Turner, chairman of the committee, yesterday sent this letter to the property owners:

"The committee on bridges will hold an important meeting at the mayor's office Friday next, at 3 o'clock p. m., to take final action on the building of Forsyth street bridge. It is desired by the committee to do the best they can for the public good, and at the same time to do what is best for those property owners who are to be immediately affected. For the purpose of consultation and agreement, if possible, you are specially invited, and requested to be present at the time and place named."

A copy was delivered by Captain Moon, the messenger, to W. H. Venable, C. R. Harris, H. Y. Snow, H. L. Alexander, W. A. Austin, W. B. Grant, Joel Hurt, A. T. Cunningham and Mrs. W. F. Peck.

All of these will be present today.

The street committee was to have had a meeting yesterday afternoon, but on account of the absence of two members it was postponed until today.

A Matter of Whisky.

The police committee met yesterday afternoon in the city hall. Several petitions for permission to sell liquor were presented, and were discussed by the members, but nothing definite was arrived at. The committee will be present at the time and place named.

They Want Work.

The fifth ward people had a meeting last night at Miles's hall on Marietta street. It was largely attended, and quite a number of speeches were made in which more work in the ward was demanded. A permanent organization was effected, and meetings will be held every week.

ABOUT THE CAPITOL.

THE STATEHOUSE OFFICERS GO TO THE OZBURN CASE.

How the State Goes to the Aid of the Convict—No Decision in the Ozburn Case Yet.

Other Minor Matters.

The governor, the adjutant general, the state school commissioner and the principal keeper are gone.

Times, of necessity, are comparatively dull at the statehouse.

The governor and the adjutant general left for Albany yesterday afternoon, and will not be back until tomorrow.

Commissioner Bradwell left Tuesday to attend the chautauqua, and, after attending to some other business in south Georgia, will probably return with the governor's party Saturday.

Principal Keeper Jones is gone on official business, and Assistant Keeper Wright is taking good care of the office until he returns.

The Ozburn Case.

There was no decision in the Ozburn case yesterday, though it was expected, and a great deal of interest is felt in the matter.

Having completed the middle circuit, now the supreme court adjourns until Monday, the 15th, for a well-earned rest—the first they have had this term.

Convict Hire.

Principal Keeper Jones has prepared a statement showing the indebtedness of the convict lessees.

Company No. 1, of which Mr. Julius L. Brown is president, owes $4,298.54.

Company No. 2, of which Mr. W. B. Lowe is president, owes $10,230.30.

Company No. 3, of which Captain J. W. English is president, owes $10,442.46.

That aggregates $25,000, which the state gets annually for its convicts; regardless of how many or how few they may be.

Under One Head.

Amongst the lawyers here on supreme court business yesterday were: H. D. D. Twigg, of Augusta; Thomas H. Porter, of Sandersville; Mr. Dell, Mr. Hunter, and T. B. Feltus, Jr.

Mr. William Brunson, Jr., of Macon, was admitted to practice in the supreme court yesterday.

Talking about country roads in the office of the secretary of state yesterday brought out the fact that at the time he was appointed to his present office, General Cook was filling the humble, but useful, office of road overseer in Lee county. He was appointed at his own request, and the roads in his district were soon as good as could be found in the state. Some of the general's friends were surprised at an ex-general and an ex-congressman accepting the place of road overseer, but the general could not see any impropriety, and as long as he was a road overseer he was a good one.

A warrant for $2,750 was issued yesterday at the executive department, the first quarter's appropriation for the five branch colleges. Of that, $750 goes to Dalton, $500 to each of the other places—Cuthbert, Thomasville, Milledgeville and Hamilton.

A warrant for $4,250 was issued as the second quarter's allowance for the deaf and dumb asylum.

The second quarter's appropriation, $5,625, was drawn for the Technological school.

The dome of the capitol is leaking, and generally in bad shape. It needs repairing. There is no danger of an accident at all. The continued wet weather is mainly responsible for the damage.

TO THE STATE CONVENTION.

Delegates Elected by the Old Atlanta W. C. T. U. Yesterday.

The "Old" Atlanta Woman's Christian Temperance Union held an important meeting in the pastor's study at the First Baptist church yesterday afternoon.

An important feature of the meeting was the election of delegates to the state convention to be held at Thomasville April 11th to the 15th.

The delegates elected were Mrs. H. A. Anten, Mrs. E. M. Evans, Miss Sue Holloway, Mrs. J. D. Esterlin, Mrs. E. C. Witten, Mrs. M. M. Calloway, and Miss Missouri Stokes.

They will also attend the state convention, being ex-officio delegates.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. M. N. Calloway presided at the meeting yesterday. After devotional exercises Miss Sue Holloway, superintendent of evangelism, made an interesting report touching the work in that field.

Miss Holloway, with several other ladies, had visited the jail and held religious exercises there among the prisoners, fifteen of whom took the pledge to God.

Reports were also made by Mrs. Calloway, superintendent of southern work, and little Miss Pearl Evans on "Little Things for Jesus."

It was announced that Mrs. Mary T. Lathrop, of Michigan, vice president of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union, would be in Atlanta next Sunday, on her way to Florida, and that she would speak at the opera house Sunday afternoon.

One Mighty Truth.

Far more immutable than the laws of the Medes and Persians is this, Health is the blessing, priceless, above all others. Without it, who shall succeed? Small ailments, temporary indigestion, the bowels, a chill, inactivity of the kidneys may, aye, do culminate disastrously. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters checkmate these in short order.

The Inquisition.

was established in Spain during the 15th century for the suppression of heresy. No matter how honest the funders may have been, history tells us that it was used solely for personal advancement and financial gain, and the means employed and measures used to force the heretics into submission were fearful to contemplate. In the acquisition of a better knowledge and more advanced civilization, these measures were abandoned and religious toleration was the result.

Formerly the best informed would tell you that piles, fistula, etc., could only be cured by the use of the knife, caustic burning and other resources equally barbarous. In the acquisition of a more advanced knowledge, there is no necessity for any such treatment. My treatment of these diseases is based upon common sense. No pain, and you get a permanent cure. You can't want more. This is no experiment, but actual results that I have obtained in the exclusive treatment of these troubles for years. Do you want to investigate? If so write me, and I will give you any information you may wish. I am willing for you to put me to the test, and if you are willing to be convinced I can do it. Respectfully,

DR. JACKSON, Hirsch Building, Atlanta, Ga. mar27-fri sun wed

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

An Admirable Display of Nerve by a Georgia Farmer.

Mr. J. K. Warton, who lives east of Decatur, met with painful injuries yesterday afternoon.

Warton, who is a farmer, drove into the city in the morning with a pair of young and frisky mules. Three or four hundred yards beyond the Richmond and Danville railroad crossing on Decatur street, on his return trip, the mules became frightened at a bicycle and dashed up the road at a tremendous rate of speed. Mr. Warton exerted his utmost strength to bring the mules under control and his efforts would have been successful but for an unfortunate accident to the harness. Just as the team reached the top of the hill, the lines gave way and the mules started off again with renewed vigor. After running a short distance further, however, they brought up against a telegraph pole at full speed, smashing the wagon into splinters and throwing Mr. Warton out.

His head struck the ground and was painfully torn by the sharp rocks. Besides the bruises sustained, Mr. Warton's left arm was fractured at the elbow. With wonderful nerve he gathered himself together and put off down the road after his fractious team, which had been stopped in its headlong flight by several persons who had witnessed the mishap. Mounting one of the mules, Mr. Warton rode back to the city, had his arm set by Dr. H. C. Richardson, and once more left for his home.

Adjourned to Saturday at 1 o'clock p. m. No further arguments will be heard until Monday, the 15th inst. at 9 o'clock a. m.

Why suffer longer from scrofula, salt rheum, pimples, boils, etc., when by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla you may be cured? It is a really wonderful blood purifier.

Hot Springs.

Have you ever visited Hot Springs? Alas! You meet while there so many instances of terrible blood poison, evidenced by disfigurement of face and form. Hither, rush sufferers from scrofula, syphilis, eczema, salt rheum, ulcers, eruptions, skin, twisted and aching joints, limbs made crooked by rheumatism, etc., etc. Some find relief, some do not and come away poor in purse and grievously disappointed. It costs money to visit and sojourn at Hot Springs. The experiment of going there cannot be indulged in without considerable expense. How thankful then should every one be to know there is a remedy even in his own home. It is a simple, safe, and beneficial in cases of blood poison than Hot Springs. We refer to Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.) as to its merits thousands will testify.

Z. T. Hallerton, Macon, Ga., writes: "I contracted blood poison. I first tried physicians, and then went to Hot Springs. I returned home a ruined man physically. Nothing seemed to do me any good. My mother persuaded me to try B. B. B. To my utter astonishment every ulcer quickly healed."

James L. Bosworth, Atlanta, Ga., says: "Some years ago I contracted blood poison. My appetite, my digestion was ruined, rheumatism preyed upon my limbs, so I could hardly walk, my throat was catarrhed five times. Hot Springs gave me no benefit and my life was one of torture until I gave B. B. B. a trial, and, surprising as it may seem, the use of five bottles cured me."

Progress.

It is very important in this age of vast material progress that a remedy be pleasant to the taste and to the eye, easily taken, acceptable to the stomach and healthy in its nature and effects. Possessing these qualities, Syrup of Figs is the one perfect laxative and most gentle diuretic known.

Save Money and Suffering.

One feature of the thousands of testimonials that have been given in behalf of S. S. S. is remarkable. In numbers of instances it is related that a great deal of time and money has been spent in a vain effort to secure relief from disease in the usual way. The knowledge of the virtues of Swift's Specific would have saved the time and the money. To say nothing of the prevention of the suffering. There need be no such mistakes made now. The great blood purifier for sale by drug stores everywhere, is Swift's Specific. In Atlanta, Swift's Specific will send to any address their free treatise on Blood and Skin Diseases free, and a pamphlet containing a list of the thousands of testimonials who have received from those who have experienced the benefits of this wonderful medicine.

TO THE LADIES.

Messrs. D. H. Dougherty & Co. Offer Them Unparalleled Bargains Today and Tomorrow.

If ever there were any real, genuine, absolute bargains offered to ladies of Atlanta, D. H. Dougherty & Co. have them this morning. Several days ago they purchased an immense line of what is known as wet goods in New York, and have arranged to place them on their counters this morning at a nominal price.

A CONSTITUTION representative had a short talk with Mr. M. M. Turner, of that firm, yesterday afternoon. Mr. Turner said:

"We will, beginning tomorrow, Friday morning, offer the greatest bargains in spring wools, white dress goods, table linens, lace, tricoes, etc. that have ever been heard of in Atlanta. Why, look here: Here are some white dress goods that everywhere retail at 20 cents per yard. Beginning tomorrow morning, we will offer these goods at 3 cents per yard. Here are some woolsens, the regular price of which is 30 cents, that we will sell tomorrow at 10 cents per yard. Here are some fine patterns of genuine linen table cloths that are retelling every day in Atlanta for $8. We sell them tomorrow and next day at $3. We have lace and white dress goods, world without end, that we bought at a nominal price and will sell in the same manner."

The fact that D. H. Dougherty & Co. are among the leaders of the dry goods trade in the south, and they uniformly represent things just as they are, and they always sell their goods for a very reasonable profit, warrant the public in attending their sale of "wet goods" today and tomorrow. You will find goods exactly as represented, and you can secure choice bargains in calling there today.

Dougherty & Co. are not in the habit of saying one thing and doing another. They pride themselves on having everything as advertised, and at the price advertised. Attend their great sale today and tomorrow, and you will then be able to verify the truth of these remarks.

THE HEART OF THE SOUTH.

Another Stride in the March of Improvement.

The life of Atlanta and the future of this great city depend on the manufacturing enterprises and industries that have already been so successfully established and are now in contemplation.

On account of its central location—the heart of the south—and its innumerable advantages, it is pre-eminently the city of the south best fitted to become a great manufacturing center. Like the spokes in the wheel of progress, the great railroad lines that enter here radiate in every direction and penetrate every section of country.

The recent organization of the Chattahoochee Land Company is another stride in the march of improvement. This company, backed by ample capital to carry out any plan undertaken, owns two of the finest properties in the south.

The first is that magnificent iron ore property, eight miles long, beginning at Canton, forty miles above Atlanta, and extending toward Cartersville. These ore beds are practically inexhaustible. Recently they have been carefully examined by General Chamberlain, of the Roane iron works, and General Wilder, of Chattanooga; two of the best iron experts in the country.

These gentlemen unite in pronouncing this tract of mineral land phenomenal in its richness and variety. As to the quantity of iron ore, they say it is simply marvellous and surpasses anything hitherto discovered in the south.

As to the second property, it is a magnetite iron, a kind of ore that is the most valuable in the production of everything in iron or steel that enters into the construction of articles of those metals for use and necessity.

Besides this these beds will furnish brown hematite and special ones in boundless quantities. The other property is equally valuable in another point of view.

It consists of a tract of 1,000 acres of land in Fulton county, located on the Chattahoochee river. If there is not the green earth that offers superior advantages for a great manufacturing town it has not been discovered.

The topography of the tract, in the very midst of the famous Piedmont escarpment, is beautifully adapted to such purposes. Then, there is the fact that the tract is owned by a company that will readily occur to the manufacturer, and practically all the lines of railway, furnishing prompt and speedy facilities for handling of the ore, and the company carries out the scheme that has been inaugurated for the development of the tract, and that this will be done, the advantages to Atlanta will be inestimable.

The tract is a most important tract, a perfect network of manufacturing establishments, and there have already been received about twenty applications for sites from different points. The company proposes to accelerate the upbuilding of this mammoth enterprise by donating lands, arranging for freight rates, locating side tracks and doing all that can be done to make of it a manufacturing center.

This is a matter of paramount importance to Atlanta. Just now is the crucial period in our history. Just now is the time when the great manufacturing centers are being established in the south, and half a dozen other places are using the most strenuous exertions for supremacy as manufacturing centers, but none of them possess such advantages naturally, as does Atlanta.

The pure water, the temperate climate and the healthfulness of the Piedmont escarpment are unequalled in the world. What nature failed to do the industry of man has accomplished, and the facilities for easy and rapid transportation to all the great trade centers render it perfect and complete as a natural manufacturing center.

A SUDDEN DEATH.

Mr. Albert Jones, of Clarkson, Dies of Paralysis of the Brain.

Mr. Albert Jones, of Clarkson, died very suddenly, yesterday morning, at his home. His death was caused by paralysis of the brain.

Wednesday Mr. Jones, who was a man fifty-five years of age, but in apparently robust health, did his usual day's work as usual.

Soon after supper he went to bed and enjoyed a good night's rest.

About 5 o'clock yesterday morning he awoke called to his sons to get up and make a fire.

Soon after this he attempted to get up himself, but was astonished to find that he was powerless to do so.

He sank back on his pillow, and before he could be given assistance he was dead.

Mr. Jones was a good citizen, and highly esteemed by all who knew him.

Do you feel one of those terrible headaches coming on? Brandywine will prevent it.
